

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Montgomery, Alabama....The Alabama Criminal Defense Lawyers Association (ACDLA) is pleased to announce the unveiling of its new website at www.acdla.org

Under works for several months, the website features a members directory and public search feature to assist the public in finding criminal defense lawyers by last name, city or county. The directory also includes mini-web pages for individual members wishing to be listed in more detail.

“We are very excited about the expansion of our membership services,” said Bruce Gardner, President of ACDLA. “Our plans call for continued additions and modifications to make the site user-friendly for both the public and in the private members only sections,” he continued.

The “Member Log In” section of the site features password protected information including a brief bank and other useful reference materials for criminal defense lawyers in Alabama. “We ask our members to submit materials they would like to see in the document search or “Member Log In” section,” Gardner concluded.

To submit materials for the website or for more information about ACDLA’s website, contact Ann Cooper at 334/272-0064 or email at: anncooper@charter.net
